

Shibboleth Service Provider V3.0.0 Released

The Shibboleth Project has released the first major upgrade to the Service Provider software in a number of years. It is a backward-compatible release designed to be a direct upgrade for existing deployments. This release provides long-awaited support for OpenSSL 1.1 to facilitate availability in newer Linux distributions.